WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

STATEMENT ESTABLISHING UNINTENTIONAL DELAY IN PAYMENT OF ISSUE FEE AND PUBLICATION FEE

Sir:

On October 9, 2007, Applicant mailed completed issue fee transmittal form PTOL-85 and payment of $1000 for the issue fee and publication fee in the above-identified patent application. Due to a clerical error, an envelope with an inaccurate mailing address was used and submitted to the United States Postal Service (USPS) for delivery (see attached Exhibit A). The USPS returned this envelope and enclosures to us as undeliverable on October 22, 2007. Applicant intended to pay the required fees prior to the deadline of October 10, 2007. The entire delay in paying the issue fee and publication fee was unintentional in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b).

Applicant requests that any required fees needed beyond those submitted with the accompanying petition be charged to the account of Baker & Daniels, Deposit Account No. 02-0390.

Respectfully submitted,
